GENERAL TRADE. Business was active for the season yesterday. The surrounding country is sending in liberal orders, and prices generally have an upward tendency, which adds greatly to the reviving feeling of public confidence. There were no arrivals of feed, and little doing in that department. Corn was offering at lower rates for arrivals to-day or to-morrow. Hay is scarce, and can be had only at higher prices. Cornneal was lower, butter de-pressed, and cabbage next door to unsalable; $3 was got for a crate or two. Hog products are very firm and advancing.
